When FRODE ISLAND
 by her legislation
 from 1844 to 1850
 ESTABLISHED
 her REVOLUTIONARY Debt
 Dr. RICHMOND
 removed from that STATE
 to this MOUNTAIN
 and selected this
 as his Family Burial Place unwilling that the remains of himself and family
 should be disgraced by being
 a part of the common earth of a REPUBLICAN STATE.

Catharine E. CRANDALL, dau Wm. H. & Lucy, d. 16 Feb. 1851 at 7 mo 19 days

NOTE: This person is actually Lucy Marwaring (MOORE) CRANDALL, daughter of Russell and Cynthia (----) Moore, who was born in Lyme, Connecticut. She was my great grandmother. The Charles S. Moore mentioned here is probably her brother, who was according to family tradition a "4Per" in California. Upon his return to Stratton Charles S. Moore, a shoemaker, worked with Mr. Hester on Water Street in Stratton. Stratton Chronology, pp 82,8. Lucy Marwaring Moore married first, Devidson Crandall, son of Jesse and Hannah (Silver) Crandall, who was born 11 March, 1818; he was drowned in Stratton Harbor on 18 April, 1843, age 25. He is interred at the old Stratton Cemetery located off Topping Rock Road, where his headstone bears a memorial from his widow. Lucy Marwaring (Moore) Crandall married second, on 27 December, 1848 William Henry Crandall, son of William and Thankful (Riley) Crandall, who was born 3 February, 1817; d. 4 Feb., 1883 (buried as indicated above). At the time of her death Lucy Marwaring (MOORE) CRANDALL was the oldest resident at Stratton, Connecticut.
